

I am a senior citizen on limited income and feel that these laws you are considering have the potential of causing me to pay alot more for internet access and possibly, I would have to give it up completely